Date	Course Name	Details
July 9th – 13th	STEAM Camp	Our STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, Math) camp "theme" will be nature-focused. We will have local experts and guest speakers to make this experience a deeply-enriching educational experience for all ages. Don't worry, we will have plenty of fun as well! This camp will serve rising K-8th graders. This year we will offer the exceptional opportunity for your students to work with curriculum directly from NASA! Weeks tuition: $90.
July 16-20	YAM Camp	See yamupstate.com for more info and to register.
July 28	DNA Class	Taught by LaMarr Brooks and Kenny Blakeney. 9:30-12:30. $30 for tuition. Learn how to order your DNA kit and read your scores. Bring a laptop if possible.
August 11	Making a Berry Basket	Taught by Debbie Wilson. 9-3 PM. $60 + $18 for supplies (paid to instructor). Students will learn how to create a round base using continuous weave and a self-wrapped handle. Color choices available.

Events at the Rensing Center

Come see The Cocoon, a giant enclosure created by Rensing fellow and current artist-in-residence, Susan Lenz, This project has transformed an enormous collection of vintage household textiles into a soft enclosure that will be on public view in the Rensing Library on Thursday, July 12 from 6 - 8 pm.

About the Rensing Center

On twenty-seven acres in the beautiful southern Appalachian foothills of Pickens, SC, the Rensing Center is more than just the land, the people, the gardens and the buildings. Our non-profit organization models a way of life less addicted to cheap energy, and more blessed by what actually fulfills us. The programs include art and environment residencies, retreats, and workshops.
